Resurrection Peace

"Jesus said to them again:
'Peace be with you.
As the Father has sent me,
even so I am sending you.'"
- John 20: 21

The salutations "Shalom Aleikem" (Hebrew), "Salam Alykum" (Arabic) and "Peace be with you" are the most commonly used and exchanged words of peace among the Jews, Muslims and Christians who embrace their heritage as from their father Abraham but yet don't live at peace with each other.

Right now, we need Jesus' words "Peace be with you" so much. This world is at war with itself. It is decaying within itself and we live in its anxiety. We're tired and stressed and we just want a little peace.

So, we look to the Risen Jesus who gives us peace - not as the world gives - but he gives us his "Resurrection Peace".

So what do we do? We look to Jesus who gives us His Resurrection and Ascension peace.

Since the events of Genesis 3:15, all people have been living in sin within themselves and in enmity with God and against one another. We start wars because of this original sin. We have no peace with our neighbors and even among the ones we love most.

But for us believers, this curse of war and the death it brings were accursed on a tree and reversed to life and peace when Jesus crushed the devil's head on the Cross and rose again for our own justification to reconcile us with God.

"Therefore, since we have been justified by faith,
we have peace with God
through our Lord Jesus Christ.
Through him we have also obtained
access by faith into this grace
in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God."
- Romans 5:1-2

When I see the Daughters of Sarah working hand-in-hand with the Daughters of Hagar at the "Sewing Seeds of Faith" ministry, my heart bursts with joy and becomes filled with peace. The only way we can ever overcome the patterns of war that are raging within ourselves and against our neighbors is to die to ourselves and 'let the peace of the Risen Christ' enter the inner of our hearts. (John 12:24-25)
