"Go Therefore and Make Disciples of All Nations"

Disciples of the Way continues its mission outreach through ministering to the Karen refugees from Burma. Pastor Karim has been invited by a group of Karen Christian Leaders to lead their youth in Bible Studies,

The Karen people from Burma have come to America as refugees because they faced persecution for being Christians. Burma is a country next to Thailand where the majority of people are Buddhist. The Buddhist majority has been oppressing and persecuting minorities, including the Christian Karen, for years. The Karen people are proud of their Christian faith, heritage and identity as redeemed people of God. Most Karen families have been Christians for many generations.

DOW is committed to discipling people from all nations to make disciples of all nations. Passing our faith on to a new generation is fulfilling Matthew 28:19-20

"Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.
And behold, I am with you always,
to the end of the age."

Matthew 28:19-20

DOW continues its daily Bible Study devotions when DOW staff and Refugee neighbors break bread and read the Bible together. Food gathers people but the Gospel of Jesus Christ saves them.

DOW's Basic English class received a certificate of completion on Wednesday, May 21st.
